WARNING:

Petitioner/applicant is cautioned to avoid submitting personal information in documents filed in a patent application that may contribute to identity theft. If this type of personal information is included in documents submitted to the USPTO, petitioners/applicants should consider redacting such personal information from the documents before submitting them to the USPTO. Petitioner/applicant is advised that the record of a patent application is available to the public after publication of the application (unless a non-publication request in compliance with 37 CFR 1.213(a) is made in the application) or issuance of a patent. Furthermore, the record from an abandoned application may also be available to the public if the application is referenced in a published application or an issued patent (see 37 CFR 1.14). STATEMENT EXPLAINING UNINTENTIONAL DELAY

MS PETITIONS
Commissioner for Patents
P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

This statement is to explain the unintentional delay in submitting an abstract in the above-cited application.

A first response to a Notice of Incomplete Filing, containing inventor-signed forms, was submitted in a timely manner, in reply to a Notice to File Missing Parts that was mailed on December 1, 2003. The undersigned attorney, while focusing on getting and then submitting the fully-signed form, failed to notice that the 12/1/03 notice also mentioned that an abstract needed to be supplied.

Subsequently, when a Notice of Incomplete Reply was sent on 4/16/2004, it apparently was not recognized as being such, and was incorrectly placed into the file of the application, without being docketed and without any action being taken.

Neither my part-time secretary nor I have any recollection or record (such as a docket entry) of ever receiving a Notice of Abandonment. If it was received, it apparently was misfiled. Along those lines, please be advised that I'm a sole practitioner, and during that span of time, I was struggling with both an extraordinarily heavy workload, and the aftermath of a major fire that caused more than $50,000 damage in my home and office, and which caused not just one but a series of computer malfunctions over a span of time that lasted for months.

Recently, during a review of the entire patent portfolio for the company and the line of products that are involved, a question was raised as to the status of this particular application. When I looked into its status, I realized it had become abandoned. Therefore, I am now filing the enclosed petition to revive.

The client-inventor remains actively interested in this application, and nothing has been done either by the inventor or by me to intentionally delay the prosecution of this application. The two oversights I made (in failing to include an abstract when the inventor-signed forms were submitted, and then in failing to recognize that a second notice of incomplete filing was different from the first notice) were both entirely unintentional.

If any questions arise, please contact the undersigned at 314-822-8558.

Respectfully submitted,

Patrick D. Kelly
